Dear

On behalf of the members of the Political Union who visited Washington last week, I would like to thank you for taking the time to meet with us. Since the Political Union has not visited the CIA in a number of years, this was the first visit for all of us. Everyone in the group with whom I spoke after the meeting was quite impressed, and felt they had gained a much better understanding of the workings of the CIA. A number of people even expressed some interest in a career with the CIA!

Again, thank you for taking the time to meet with us.

Sincerely,

David Meltzer
Vice-President

Mr. David Meltzer
Vice-President
The Yale Political Union
1951 Yale Station

Dear Mr. Meltzer:

In reference to your request on behalf of the Yale Political Union, I am pleased to confirm that your visit to CIA has been scheduled for Wednesday, 13 March, from 8:45 to 11:00 a.m. at our Headquarters Building in Langley, Virginia (see attached map). Please plan to enter at the Route 123 entrance. Deputy Director of Central Intelligence John McMahon will give you an overview of the Agency. Former Yale graduate and former Director of Operations John Stein will discuss the clandestine services, and a senior officer from the Directorate of Intelligence will brief you on the analytical part of the Agency. Director of the Office of Personnel Robert Magee will also be available to answer any questions concerning career opportunities at this Agency. All briefings will be considered off-the-record and not attributable to the speakers, the Agency, or intelligence sources. To help us help you benefit most from the short time we will have together, I hope you will arrive by 8:30 a.m. in order to check in with our receptionist. You will then be taken to the briefing room where coffee and doughnuts will be served from 8:45 to 9:00 a.m.

To satisfy our security requirements, I ask that at least two weeks in advance of your visit I receive an alphabetized list of all attendees with full name, home address, date and place of birth, and social security number for each. Please also include a brief statement from you that all are U.S. citizens, since we are not prepared to accommodate foreign nationals. Will a member of the faculty or a senior person be on hand in the event any unforeseen problems arise? I plan to meet you on your arrival and to be available to help throughout your visit.

Each individual should plan to bring some form of identification with photograph to show to the receptionist upon entering the building. If you will let me know of any handicapped persons who will attend, I will make special arrangements to assist them. Since we have limited parking facilities, it will help to know in advance the number and description of vehicles you will be arriving in. Buses or vans should plan to stay here for the duration of your visit (otherwise, special arrangements must be made with the gate, which means an even earlier arrival). I apologize in advance for any inconvenience that may be caused by the construction of our new Headquarters addition.

The Agency allows neither hazardous equipment--such as weapons or explosives--nor cameras, recording devices, or radio transmitters to be brought into the building, which I guess should go without saying. Nevertheless, to save embarrassment, you might mention these things to our guests.

Also attached is a checklist summarizing these details, which I hope will assist you in making arrangements. We look forward to your visit. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to call me at 703-351-2546.

Sincerely,

Public Affairs

Director William Casey
(Att: Mr. George V. Lauder,
Director of Public Affairs)
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Director Casey:

It is my great privilege to invite you to address the Yale Political Union this spring. The Union is the largest student organization at Yale, and has just completed its 50th Anniversary celebration. Since its founding in 1934, by Dean Acheson and Harvey Bundy among others, it has become a national forum for nonpartisan political discussion. Past speakers at the Union include Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Carter, Caspar Weinberger, Gary Hart, and, most recently, Ed Koch. We would be honored if you would help us carry on this fine tradition in the upcoming spring term.

You are welcome, of course, to choose the subject on which you would like to speak. If it is possible for you to join us, we would be glad to discuss the details of topic and format. We would like to schedule this event sometime between the third week of January and the last week of April, 1985. Also, if you cannot find time to come to New Haven, perhaps you would be willing to meet with a group of us when we visit Washington on the 11th, 12th and 13th of March.

As is our custom, we will be happy to reimburse your travel expenses. Should you wish to spend the night at Yale, we would be delighted to serve as your hosts. I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the pleasure of meeting with you in either New Haven or Washington this spring.

Sincerely yours,

Brice Henri Peyre

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the Government Research Corporation's
U.S. Foreign Investment Policy Forum

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline invitation to address the fifth annual meeting of the Government Research Corporation's U.S. Foreign Investment Policy Forum on Monday morning, 6 May, at the Executive Office Building of the White House.

2. Arrangements: Stephen C. Caulfield, President of the Government Research Corporation, has invited you to address their U.S. Foreign Investment Policy Forum on U.S. foreign policy and national security matters. You could expect a group of 80 to 100 senior executives from overseas banks, insurance companies, and investment houses who are responsible for managing pension funds and substantial equity investments in the United States (in the range of $250 billion). All attendees would be foreign nationals representing primarily European, South American, and Canadian corporations. (See list of 1983-1984 participating institutions opposite.) The meeting is off-the-record, and the media will not be allowed to attend. The suggested format is 15 minutes of remarks followed by 15 minutes of questions and answers. According to the organization's staff member, the attendees are interested in "how events effect the economic status of this country and how their corporations should invest in the U.S."

Senator Dave Durenberger, Secretary James Baker, and Congressional Budget Office Director Rudolph Penner will be speaking to this group. In addition, Vice President Bush and OMB Director David Stockman have been invited to give briefings. Last year Robert McFarlane and Faith Whittlesey participated in the forum. (See brochures for 1983-1984 programs opposite.)

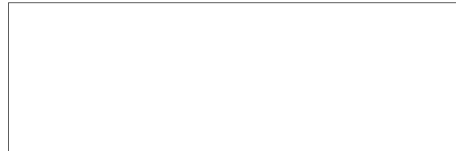

3. Background: The Government Research Corporation is comprised of consultants specializing in U.S. federal policy analysis. The organization provides evaluation of policy directions vis-a-vis business and industry. At one time the Government Research Corporation published the well known NATIONAL JOURNAL MAGAZINE, but is now no longer involved in its publication. The Forum was started by President Lyndon Johnson in 1967 to provide those controlling foreign debt and equity investments in the United States with insights into our public policy environment.

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the Government Research Corporation's
U.S. Foreign Investment Policy Forum

4. Recommendation: We have been unable to identify any special White House interest in your participation in particular. Since the attendees would all be foreign nationals, I recommend that you not address this group. Please indicate your preference and have the Public Affairs Office make the appropriate response.
